

Reid Saunders Bio:

On a stage or at a grocery store, Reid sees opportunities all around him to share hope with those who are hurting.

Reid was born and raised in Petaluma, California. He enjoyed a loving family and popularity in school, but felt a void in his life. At 17 years of age, Reid surrendered himself to the Lord, a decision that changed the trajectory of his life.

As a young Christ-follower, Reid recorded many of Billy Graham's messages, marveling at the power of God's Word to touch hearts and change lives.

He attended Western Baptist College (now Corban University) in Salem, Oregon and Multnomah Biblical Seminary in Portland, Oregon, where Reid received his Master of Divinity. He also gained valuable training and experience as an intern at Luis Palau Association.

In 2002, Reid founded Reid Saunders Association, which has proclaimed the Gospel in word and in deed to more than 67 million people across the globe. He has ministered in 75 nations and across the USA at festivals, conferences, and outreach events. He is the author of Life to the Fullest, All for Jesus!, Making Your Life Count for Christ, and Active8.

Reid, his wife, Carmen, and their three children live in Salem, Oregon.
